Selection Process and Insights

- The selection process consisted of multiple stages.
- It started with an online assessment focusing on Data Structures, Algorithms, and problem-solving skills. Candidates who cleared the test were shortlisted for technical interviews.
- The first technical round tested core computer science fundamentals such as DSA, OOPs, DBMS, and Operating Systems, along with questions based on projects. The second round focused on advanced problem-solving and real-world scenarios.
- The final HR round evaluated communication skills, attitude, cultural fit, and career goals. Consistency, clarity of thought, and confidence played a key role in the final selection.

Preparation Strategy

- GeeksforGeeks – DSA and core CS subjects
- LeetCode – Coding practice and interview questions
- Gate Smashers & Neso Academy – DBMS, OS, CN concepts
- Mock interviews with seniors
- GitHub – Project development and version control

- Consistent daily practice and regular revision helped build confidence.

Advice for Juniors

Do:

- Start preparation early and stay consistent
- Focus on DSA and core CS fundamentals
- Build meaningful projects and understand them deeply
- Practice explaining answers clearly
- Take mock interviews seriously

Don't:

- Don't rely on last-minute preparation
- Don't memorize concepts without understanding
- Don't copy projects from the internet
- Don't panic if you don't know an answer
- Don't compare your journey with others
